

All booking via Rother Woods Project Officer, Steve on 01580 879958 or email swheatley@butterfly-conservation.org

Thursday
27th March
7:30pm

Public Meeting – Introducing the Rother Woods Project, Beckley Village Hall, Main Street, Beckley (TQ853240) – Come along and find out all about this exciting new project and how you can be part of it.

You can also drop in during the day (1pm onwards) to see the displays and find out more.

For everyone interested in woodlands or wildlife in Rother.

Saturday
26th April
10:30am

Identifying and Recording Butterflies, Brede High Woods (meet in the main car park, TQ804205). Free workshop and walk for people interested in taking part in Rother Woods butterfly surveys in the Rother Woods. Eminent ecologist Dr Patrick Roper and will provide guidance in identification and survey techniques for butterflies and day-flying moths.

Suitable for all levels - beginners to experts. Booking essential.

Saturday
10th May
10:30am

Identifying and Recording Butterflies, Weights Wood – Great Dixter (Meet at Great Dixter car park, TQ819252, signposted from Northiam). Free workshop for people interested in helping to record butterflies in the Rother Woods. This walk will give you a good grounding in identification and survey techniques for butterflies and day-flying moths.

Suitable for all levels - beginners to experts. Booking essential.

Saturday
7th June
Meet at 8pm

National Moth Night – “A Tale of 4 Orchards” Meet at Great Dixter car park at 20:30 (TQ819252). An exciting opportunity to visit moth traps in a variety of orchards. Moth experts will be on hand to identify the weird and wonderful moths arrive. Bring a torch.

Transport essential.

Sunday
8th June
8am to 9am

National Moth Morning, Great Dixter House, Northiam (TQ819251). Come along in the morning to see the results of National Moth Night and get a peek at a selection of the wonderful moths that have been discovered overnight.

Families Welcome. Wheelchair and pushchair access.

Friday
20th June
from 8:30pm

Garden Moths Count, Great Dixter House (TQ819251). Discover some of the weird and wonderful moths which visit our gardens. Learn how to attract moths in simple and fun ways, how to identify them, and then take part in the exciting nationwide survey to discover which amazing moths and caterpillars live in your own garden.

Families Welcome. Wheelchair and pushchair access.

Saturday
19th July
11am

Farm Butterfly Walk, Swallowtail Farm, Hobbs Lane, Beckley (TQ864249). A free guided walk around a wonderful farm, including meadows, green lanes, ponds and ancient woodland. There's the potential to see lots of wonderful butterflies and other wildlife.

Families Welcome. Booking essential.

Saturday
16th August
11am

Woodland Butterfly Walk and Picnic, Brede High Woods (off the B2089, TQ804205). Meet at the car park for a circular guided walk through this wonderful wood owned by the Woodland Trust. We'll look out for butterflies and stop for lunch in a hidden meadow. Bring a picnic.

Families Welcome. Booking essential.

 Sorry no dogs at these events as they frighten the butterflies!

